DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1, 5-7, 9-14, 18 and 22-26 are pending per amendment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Applicant discloses in claim 14, "a recordable-type medium...". Paragraph [0033] of the spec does not limit the definition of the "recordable-type medium" to non-transitory tangible medium. The broadest reasonable interpretation of a claim drawn to a computer readable medium (also called machine readable medium and other such variations) typically covers forms of non-transitory tangible media and transitory propagating signals per se in view of the ordinary and customary meaning of computer readable media. These are forms of energy such as signals; therefore the claim is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Appropriate correction is required.

In order to overcome the 101 rejection, Examiner suggests that Applicants change "recordable-type medium" to "non-transitory computer-readable medium".

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1, 5-7, 9-13, 18 and 22-26 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant arguments regarding the art rejections of the office action dated 12/21/2009 are persuasive. However, Examiner has now made a new ground of rejection in light of the 101 issues present in claim 14.
